AIYA Europe - Matcha Masters Since 1888

Matcha is popular in Europe today - but its history goes back over 800 years. AIYA has been producing high-quality matcha since 1888 and was a pioneer in organic quality in 1978. This tradition continues to this day. With a 90% market share in the industry, AIYA Europe is the leading supplier and benchmark for quality in Europe - from the tea house to the food industry.
