Behind Arang is Sung-Hee Kim - founder, mother and daughter of Korean restaurant proprietors. Her mission: to bring authentic Korean cuisine to German households - with high-quality products that not only taste good, but are also sustainably produced.

Arang stands for Clean K-Food Made in Germany: organic seaweed soups, savoury sauces and Korean round grain rice - produced regionally and inspired by family recipes.

Without additives, but with lots of flavour.

As a female founder, Sung-Hee not only wants to make good food accessible, but also to mediate between cultures. Her products show this: Korean cooking can be simple, suitable for everyday use and really tasty.
